

Tulsa, OK - March. 22, 2021 - A stellar evening with the world's best talents in the music world is slated for the National Fiddler Hall of Fame 2021 Gala induction concert, Friday, October 22, 2021. All tickets previously purchased are valid for this concert, which was necessarily changed due to lingering Covid concerns. Four violin virtuosos will be inducted into the National Fiddler Hall of Fame and perform as all join together in a star-studded tribute to Kris Kristofferson.

The prestigious lineup of Inductees include Shoji Tabuchi, "King of Branson" and nationally known fiddle star, who is excited to be on stage in Tulsa; Dale Morris, champion fiddler who has played and recorded with Ray Price, Marty Robbins, Bill Monroe and many others; Scott Joss, band member with Dwight Yoakum, Merle Haggard, Kris Kristofferson and a solo artist of stature himself with several albums, awards, and many original songs to his credit; and beloved Don Rich, known as 'the Buck Owens sound' with stellar guitar and fiddle work as a Buckaroo on Hee Haw where he was a recording artist and songwriter. Rich will be inducted posthumously and others will perform October 22. Several other top stars are to be announced soon!

VIP table ticket holders will enjoy a full dinner, drinks, a Meet and Greet with the artists, and a Pre-Show by the fabulous band SpringStreet and special guests. There will also be music in the lobby and an Auction during intermission of a quality violin, donated by NFHOF board member, Larry Barto, with all proceeds going to the NFHOF Scholarship Fund.

For Tickets and more information, go to <https://mabeecenter.com> or call the Mabee Center box office at 918-495-6000.